

JOB DESCRIPTION

PERIPATETIC MUSIC TEACHER Required from September 2019

St Hilda's Preparatory School (2-11) provides a happy and nurturing environment where quality learning takes place and the needs of the individual child are fulfilled. Music is taught in the well-equipped Music rooms.

We seek an inspirational Music Teacher to teach singing, term time only (34 weeks). The successful candidate would be able to assess the musical capabilities of the individual student, and train them to their full potential. A love of music, a willingness to work hard to improve, and an appreciation of different styles and genres are important aspects that we hope all of our students will achieve. We also encourage working towards Associated Board examinations as well as in-house performance opportunities that occur throughout the academic year.

This is an exciting opportunity for someone who wishes to be part of a highly vibrant music-making department.

Responsibilities

- Provide quality lessons for individuals or pairs
- Communicate with parents during the year as appropriate
- Write end of term/year reports for the pupils
- Support the Music Coordinator in preparing the students for recitals and concerts

PERSON SPECIFICATION:

Essential

- Grade 8 singing, or equivalent
- Able to demonstrate self-employed status
- Public Liability Insurance
- Current DBS check

Desirable

- Additional professional qualifications.
- An up-to-date knowledge of current effective teaching practices.
- Evidence of comprehensive and continued professional development
- Experience of working collaboratively within a fast paced and demanding community.

The current fee is £16.97 per 30-minute session.

Your completed application form should be sent to secretary@sthildasbushey.co.uk as soon as possible and no later than Monday 17th June – 12 noon.
